Critical Illness Benefit

Heart Attack & Stroke Benefit

Cancer Benefit

These riders provide benefits only for the first occurrence of a covered condition. The benefit is payable only once during the lifetime of a covered person. These riders do not provide benefits for any other disease, sickness or incapacity. The benefit for a first occurrence critical illness will be reduced by any prior benefit paid for major heart surgery or angioplasty.

There is a 60-day waiting period for coverage.* If a covered condition is diagnosed during the waiting period, or if advice or treatment received during the waiting period leads to the first occurrence of a covered condition, the insured has the option to cancel the policy and receive a refund of premiums paid (in OK, 10% of the benefit is payable if diagnosis occurs during the waiting period). In the event of a stroke, there is a 30-day period during which paralysis or neurological deficit must persist prior to payment of the benefit.

* 30 days in AL, AR, MD, OK, TN and WV; in NC, 30 days for Cancer Benefit.

Pre-Existing Conditions

Pre-existing condition* means:

- (1) the existence of symptoms which would cause an ordinarily prudent person to seek medical diagnosis, care and treatment within one year before the effective date of coverage, or
- (2) a condition for which medical consultation, advice or treatment was recommended by or received from or sought from a physician during the five years¹ immediately preceding the effective date of coverage.

Hospital Admission Benefit

Hospital Daily Room Benefit

Hospital Intensive Care Benefit

We do not cover pre-existing conditions for the first two years after coverage becomes effective.

Outpatient Surgery Benefit

Critical Illness Benefit

Heart Attack & Stroke Benefit

Cancer Benefit

Pre-existing conditions are not covered.

* In District of Columbia, number 1 above is replaced with: (1) the existence of symptoms which would have caused a person to seek medical diagnosis, care or treatment within one year before the effective date of the policy.

In West Virginia, Pre-existing Condition means the existence of symptoms which would have caused an ordinarily prudent person to seek diagnosis, care or treatment within a 2 year period preceding the effective date of the policy; or a condition for which medical advice or treatment was recommended by a physician or received from a physician within a 2 year period preceding the effective date of the policy.

¹ One year in North Carolina; two years in Wisconsin.

Other Coverage

The Great American Plan pays in addition to other coverage. There is no coordination of benefits for the payment of a claim. If used as a supplement to a plan that qualifies for use with a Health Savings Account (HSA), consult with your tax advisor.
