Modified Endowment Contract Disclosure Statement

The Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988 created a new class of life insurance contracts known as Modified Endowment Contracts. The principal purpose of this law was to restrict the use of life insurance as an investment. The law accomplished this by limiting the amount of premium that is allowed to be paid into a life insurance contract. The allowable amount of premium is dependent on the death benefit. If the calculated premium limits (defined in TAMRA 1988 code section 7702A) for a life insurance contract are exceeded, the life insurance contract becomes a Modified Endowment Contract.

The plan of insurance as illustrated for you exceeds the calculated allowable premium limits and would therefore be considered a Modified Endowment Contract. A policy that is a Modified Endowment Contract has the following implications for you:

- 1) Money distributed from a Modified Endowment Contract by cash distributions, withdrawals, loans, or assignments, will be considered taxable income until all gain, if any, has been distributed.
- 2) The taxable income amounts will also be subject to a 10% penalty tax unless you have attained age 59 1/2, become disabled, or you annuitize the entire cash value. (If the policy owner is a corporation, such proceeds are subject to the 10% penalty tax at any time).
- 3) Death benefits of Modified Endowment Contracts paid to any named beneficiary are treated as life insurance proceeds and therefore are not subject to income tax.

I acknowledge that I have read this disclosure statement and understand that the plan of insurance illustrated is a Modified Endowment Contract and therefore subject to special tax treatment as outlined above.

of my account listed above to an Assurity Life Insurance Company Annuity. I am aware of and accept any surrender or withdrawal penalties that may be applied and request that proof of any such penalties be provided with the proceeds.

Assignment statement: I hereby assign all rights, title and interest in the above contract/policy, or the portion thereof indicated above if this is a partial exchange, with the above company to Assurity Life Insurance Company, in consideration of Assurity Life Insurance Company's agreement to issue its own contract on me. The new contract issued by Assurity will show a purchase payment equal to the value transferred to Assurity. I understand that if for any reason the existing insurance carrier issues a check for the original contract directly to me, I am obligated to endorse such check to Assurity only and to deliver such check to Assurity.

Notice regarding partial 1035 exchanges and exchanges to existing contracts: Partial exchanges with subsequent withdrawals or annuitizations may be subject to IRS challenge if entered into for the purpose of avoiding premature withdrawal or other penalties. Also, the Internal Revenue Service has not issued guidelines regarding the apportionment of basis between contracts involved in partial exchanges. Until such guidance is issued, Assurity will utilize a pro-rata formula for such apportionment. While Assurity believes this will be consistent with any IRS guidelines ultimately issued, these guidelines could mandate a different allocation method. Exchanges into existing contracts should be approached cautiously, and only after consultation with a tax advisor, since the IRS has not yet issued definitive guidance regarding the permissibility of such exchanges.

Surrender direction: This is intended to be a nontaxable exchange under Internal Revenue Code section 1035. By signing this form, I hereby direct the current institution to surrender my contract/policy (or to process a partial surrender or withdrawal if this is a partial exchange) and to transfer the proceeds directly to Assurity .

REPLACING YOUR LIFE INSURANCE POLICY OR ANNUITY

Are you thinking about buying a new policy and discontinuing or changing an existing policy? If you are, your decision could be a good one — or a mistake. You will not know for sure unless you make a careful comparison of your existing policy and the proposed policy.

Make sure you understand the facts. Ask the company or agent that sold you your existing policy to provide you with a policy summary statement.

The reverse side contains a checklist of some of the items you should consider in making your decision. TAKE TIME TO READ IT.

Do not let one agent or insurer prevent you from obtaining information from another agent or insurer, which may be to your advantage.

Hear both sides before you decide. This way you can be sure you are making a decision that is in your best interest.

We are required to notify your existing company that you may be replacing their policy.

ITEMS TO CONSIDER

1. If the policy coverages are basically similar, premiums for a new policy may be higher because rates increase as your age increases.
2. Cash values and dividends, if any, may grow slower under a new policy initially because of the initial costs of issuing a policy.
3. Your present insurance company may be able to make a change on terms, which may be more favorable than if you replace existing insurance with new insurance.
4. If you borrow against an existing policy to pay premiums on a new policy, death benefits payable under your existing policy will be reduced by the amount of any unpaid loan, including unpaid interest.
5. Current interest rates are not guaranteed. Guaranteed interest rates are usually considerably lower than current rates. What rates are guaranteed?
6. Are premiums guaranteed or subject to change — up or down?
7. Participating policies pay dividends that may materially reduce the cost of insurance over the life of the contract. Dividends, however, are not guaranteed.
8. CAUTION, you are urged not to take action to terminate, assign or alter your existing life insurance coverage until after you have been issued the new policy, examined it and have found it to be acceptable to you, and

REMEMBER, you have twenty (20) days following receipt to examine the contents of any individual life insurance policy or annuity. If you are not satisfied with it for any reason, you have the right to return it to the insurer at its home or branch office, or to the agent through whom it was purchased, for a full refund of premium.
